

PRESENTED BY THE OPL ASSOCIATES:

CLASSIC DRAMA & COMEDY IN ITALIAN CINEMA

THURSDAYS AT 7 PM, IN THE BUDARZ THEATER

MODERATED / CURATED BY SHLOMI RON & BONNIE KATZ

◀ October 7th

WHITE NIGHTS

(Le Notti Bianche)

Luchino Visconti (1957) 97 minutes

A poetic love triangle between a shy man and a beautiful woman who awaits the return of her lover. Set in Venice and starring Maria Schell, Marcello Mastroianni and Jean Marais.

◀ November 11th

SEDUCED AND ABANDONED

(Sedotta e Abbandonata)

Pietro Germi (1964) 117 minutes

Stefania Sandrelli plays a Sicilian teenager seduced by her sister's fiancé in this Commedia All'italiana.

◀ December 9th

THE GIRLFRIENDS

(Le Amiche)

Michelangelo Antonioni (1955) 99 minutes

A drama about a woman who returns to Turin to establish a fashion salon and the women that she meets there.

Sicilian Vistas, a video exhibit created by Shlomi Ron, will be shown before each film. Shlomi attended the Taormina Film Festival in Sicily this past summer. He is co-founder of community blog cafePellicola.com, which celebrates fine Italian cinema.

FREE ADMISSION | REFRESHMENTS